

Seeking Spatial Justice: The Impact of Urban Planning on Economic Mobility

Does your zip code determine your opportunities for work? Does the way in which your city develops affect your school, transportation, and recreational choices? We will look at examples in Forsyth County of how planning decisions help or harm opportunity. What are the decisions that made Forsyth the third lowest ranked county in the United States for moving up the income ladder? Are there ways to improve our economic health?

Russell M. Smith, Ph.D.

Professor of Geography at Winston Salem State University

Faculty Lead for the Spatial Justice Studio
@ Center for Design Innovation

FAITH and JUSTICE
COMMITTEE

In My Backyard: Faith and Current Events

*A Monthly Bag Lunch & Speaker Series
Bring your own lunch. St. Paul's will provide beverages. All are welcome!*

Thursday

January 23rd, 2020

12:15 p.m.

Colhoun Room

ST PAUL'S

Episcopal Church, Winston-Salem